

Meet leaders from all over the greater Baltimore Area Council at a full day of fun-filled hands-on learning opportunities for every level of Cub Scout leadership. Pow Wow is an annual Council training event that promotes ideas to supplement Den, Pack and summertime activities for your Unit.

If you are a potential leader, new registered leader, experienced leader or family member who wants to better understand the Cub Scout program and the benefits it provides for today's youth, come join us Saturday, November 7, 2009.

If you are a Boy Scout who would like to be a Den Chief or perhaps you've already been approached by your Scoutmaster to work with a Den and want to improve your knowledge and skills. This is the event for you.

Come join us for Den Chief Training Saturday, November 7, 2009.
